Description

We embed documents within Lucite all the time. People ask about certificates, money, cards, letters and much more. If something can't directly be embedded for some reason we make up a duplicate that can.

A person in the Supreme Court wanted this historic ceremonial document preserved. The embedded document had a lot of meaning to them. We encased it in clear Lucite, preserving it. The seal printed on the front is replicated on the front surface. It creates a timeless and beautifully simple memento.
